Keyboard Reduction

The first system of the keyboard reduction consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking and contains a series of eighth notes with accents. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system features a vocal line and a keyboard reduction. The vocal line is on a treble clef staff with lyrics: "How great, how won - der - ful, that He would e - ven". The keyboard reduction is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a forte (f) dynamic marking. A measure number '4' is indicated at the start of the keyboard part.

The third system shows the keyboard reduction continuing. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music includes various chordal textures and melodic lines. A measure number '4' is indicated at the start.

The fourth system features a vocal line and a keyboard reduction. The vocal line is on a treble clef staff with lyrics: "come; that He would e - ven come to share our joy, our". The keyboard reduction is on a grand staff. A measure number '7' is indicated at the start.

The fifth system shows the keyboard reduction continuing. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music includes various chordal textures and melodic lines. A measure number '7' is indicated at the start.
